

THE MORNING APPEAL.

THURSDAY.....JANUARY 28

Grecian Games Revived.

The passage of the bill in the Assembly Tuesday restricting and licensing glove contests in Nevada will probably pass the Senate and if it does so an effort should be made to re-establish the old Olympian games, such as were revived at Marathon, Greece, last summer.

Athletes from all over the world were invited to participate and as a result, over 100,000 people were gathered in the big Amphitheater at Marathon to see the contests of wrestling, boxing, running, etc., and the United States took most of the honors.

This affair caused a great revival of athletic sports and the athletes of America are looking about for some suitable place to give a similar exhibition next summer.

The first place is to get the crowd. This country is not so thickly populated as Greece but if leading lights of the roped arena come to Nevada it would bring the crowd and two weeks of athletic sports, mixed with horse racing, could be given at Reno and Carson, each a week apiece.

It would draw 50,000 people to the State while the games and sports were in progress and it will bring a lot of people to Nevada who can see what our products are and invest in our lands and mines.

East Lynne.

The Carrie Clark Ward Company had the largest audience of their engagement present last evening to witness the performance of Mrs. Henry Woods' instructive play East Lynne or the Elopement. The piece is a good dramatization of the well known story, and the company brought out all the points in the drama true to nature.

Carrie Clark Ward surprised her admirers by giving a powerful rendition of a strong emotional role. She puts plenty of light and shade in the part of Lady Isabel, and as the jealous wife and afterwards the repentant mother she brought from the audience both laughter and tears. Her scene at the death bed of Millie was particularly strong. She dressed her part magnificently and with much taste.

Mr. Clyde Bishop as the wronged husband gave a manly representation of the part (Archibald Carlyle). Carl Berch as the gentle villian Sir Francis Levison was as mean and contemptible as it is possible to imagine, nevertheless he portrayed the role excellently and with telling effect.

Mr. Bailey as Dill, Mr. King as Richard Hare and Miss Griffin as Miss Corney also deserves special mention. The audience was composed largely of women who delight to go to see a play that gives them buckets of tears and lots of emotional work.

Tonight the company will appear in the nautical drama Hearts of Oak.

It is said that the ranchers of the State of Washington are hoping that a severe winter will rid them of 100,000 head of horses, which eat up their bunch grass and cannot be sold at any price. Horse in that neck of the woods are said to go begging at $1 apiece. Cattle and sheep find purchasers at some price, but nobody wants horses.

Runaway horses are unknown in Russia. No one drives there without having a thin cord with a running noose around the neck of the animal. When the horse bolts the cord is pulled, and the horse stops as soon as it feels the pressure on its windpipe.

Members of the Legislature are requested to leave orders for all daily California or local papers (except Carson papers) at John G. Fox's, opposite the State Capitol. A full line of all kinds of stationery and legislative bill files on hand.

The "recruits for the Cuban army" are as about as numerous these days as the aspirants for Cabinet portfolios—and the probability of seeing active service is just as remote.

Emperor William has snubbed Count Herbert Bismarck and the iron chancellor will be obliged to print some more private letters of state to even things up.

Editor Sproule has been appointed on the reception committee at the inauguration of Wm. McKinley and will attend.

The Wadsworth Dispatch says A. C. Cleveland will be in the Senatorial fight two years hence under the home rule banner.

In Sacramento to-day a bill was passed by the Senate prohibiting remarriage within a year after a divorce was granted.
